NEWS, EVENTS & NOTICES

God doesn't give us answers. In the silence he gives us himself - bigger than our pain, beyond our explanations, closer than our breath.

Alain Emerson

When you follow God in wholehearted obedience, and suddenly your entire world falls apart; when your deepest, most urgent prayers are met with silence – can faith survive?

Alain Emerson felt like the luckiest man in the world. The talented pastor of a thriving church and national director of a prayer movement, he had found and married Lindsay, his soulmate. He could never have imagined that in a matter of months he would be nursing his twenty-three-year-old wife through the final stages of cancer, and would find himself as a young widower, distraught and alone.

In Luminous Dark Alain retraces his journey through the stages of grief, pain and shock, choosing to lean into the pain and to face God with his disappointment in the dark tunnel of despair. It is here that Alain wrestles with God and with his grief.

And it is from that he emerges with a sense of having seen God's face – the one who knows our pain, who walks beside us, suffers and weeps with us, and who ultimately restores our joy.

Come and hear Alain talk about why he wrote the book
